September 2009

Dear Friends:

Plans are well underway for the 25th Annual Festival of Trees fundraising event presented by the Junior League of South Brevard, Inc. (JLSB). Festival of Trees returns to the Maxwell C. King Center for the Performing Arts on November 21 – 22, 2009. Since 1985, this ever-popular fundraiser has ushered in Brevard County's holiday season with a stunning display of uniquely decorated trees and holiday scenes. The weekend-long extravaganza, which attracts thousands of visitors annually, features the best of everything holiday that Brevard has to offer.

We are currently seeking community groups to volunteer to provide entertainment for the event, such as musical, dance, or theatrical performances. We'd like to have a number of performances scheduled throughout the day on Saturday and Sunday. We are excited to have a highly visible covered outdoor venue at the King Center to showcase our entertainment this year. We also have opportunities for "strolling" entertainment, such as carolers, characters, or other fun entertainment performances. Performances should be appropriate for audience members of all ages.

We have enclosed a participation form and our rules. If you would like to participate, please complete the form and return to our office. If you have questions, please contact me at 321-288-1164 or rudolphsreview@jlsb.net. Thank you for your consideration!

Best wishes,

Kathy Along, Rudolph's Review Chair
